

- Gave the list of countries a title to make it clear what was being displayed.
- Added buttons to each of the countries listed. This will make it more obvious to the user that they are clickable.
- Added some styling and labels to the content on the country details pages. This makes it clearer to the user what the information they're looking at is